

Alaska Sportfishing Expeditions operates The Cedars Lodge, Silverking Lodge, and Clover Pass Resort, all located in and around Ketchikan. Whether you are looking for a top-notch guide, or just a rental skiff to get you out on the water by yourself, Alaska Sportfishing Expeditions can customize your fishing trip to meet all of your needs and expectations. While each of our facilities is unique in its offerings, each of our properties share the same commitment to outstanding customer service and a dedication to making sure that your trip is a memorable one.

For exciting information and our special internet prices, visit www.ketchikanalaskanfishing.com

The Cedars Lodge

Located near downtown Ketchikan, The Cedars Lodge combines fantastic guided fishing and luxury accommodations with the benefit of Ketchikan's shopping and attractions. Fully guided freshwater and saltwater packages are sure to please even the most discriminating angler. There are a variety of lodging options to meet every budget. The Cedars Lodge opens in May and closes at the end of September.

Located 20 miles northwest of Ketchikan on Grant Island, Silverking Lodge offers premier self-guided fishing packages for the do-it-yourself angler. In business for 20 years, Silverking Lodge has become a year-after-year vacation destination for many of its guests. Packages at Silverking Lodge begin on Monday afternoon and ends on Sunday morning. Silverking Lodge's season begins the last week of June and runs through the first week of October.

The Silverking Lodge

Clover Pass Resort and RV Park

Clover Pass Resort and RV Park is located 15 miles north of Ketchikan on North Point Higgins Road. In operation for over 50 years, Clover Pass Resort is one of the longest operating resorts in the state. Clover Pass Resort offers guided freshwater and saltwater fishing trips, self-guided saltwater fishing packages, skiff rentals, moorage, & a 40-space RV park. Clover Pass Resort & RV Park opens in May and closes at the end of September.