Our products are shipped via Federal Express and arrive the day after they leave Alaska. Products include fresh salmon, smoked salmon, halibut, dungeness crab, and spot prawns (shrimp). These products are perfect for your dinner table, a special event, or as a gift. Product availability may vary depending on the fishing season.

If fishing just isn't in your plans this year (or even if it is!) we certainly wouldn't want you to be without some of Alaska's best seafood. Wild seafood has been touted not only for its delicious taste, but also for its health benefits. Gateway Seafood & Smokehouse purchases its products directly from the fishermen themselves. This helps us to insure quality by buying from people we know and trust and only taking delivery of their freshest products. Careful handling of the product, vacuum sealing of each individual piece, and our fast freezing capability help to ensure that you get the freshest, highest quality seafood available.
